Smart Alex 2022: Secondary schools creative-writing competition

Background

The Friends of the Turnbull Library Ngā Hoa o te Whare Pukapuka Turnbull announce the fourth year of our creative writing competition Smart Alex. The competition was created during the ATL100 celebrations to inspire and encourage students to enter the world of the Alexander Turnbull Library and discover its many treasures. This year the competition coincides with the release of Te Kupenga, and students are encouraged to use this taonga to become familiar with the work and collections of the Library.

The Friends have generously sponsored the competition for this further year, offering $3,100 in prize money. The competition is open to all secondary school students in New Zealand and the South Pacific Islands.

Who was ‘Smart Alex’?

One thousand years after Kupe arrived in Aotearoa and around 100 years after James Cook first navigated his way to Aotearoa New Zealand, Alexander Turnbull was born in Wellington, growing up to become not only a successful businessman but an amazing collector – of art, artefacts, clothes, coins, maps, photographs and books – especially books about New Zealand and the Pacific. He bought his first book at 17 and didn’t stop. He wasn’t a hoarder, he was a book hunter, and his passion for collecting books about us turned into something quite extraordinary. When he died, Alexander Turnbull gifted his collection (including 55,000 books!) to New Zealand. That gift became the basis for New Zealand’s largest documentary heritage library, the Alexander Turnbull Library (ATL) and was seen as “the most generous bequest to the people of New Zealand ever made by a New Zealander”.

Entry criteria

You will personally respond to, or interpret, an item in the collections of the Alexander Turnbull Library to produce a piece of creative writing, or an illustrated graphic story, or a written song/waiata.

Submissions can be prose, poetry, or a combination of text and illustrations such as a cartoon strip or graphic story, or written lyrics for a song/waiata.

To fire your imagination visit your school library and look through Te Kupenga or browse the Te Kupenga content on the National Library website: Te Kupenga . Or you could also search on-line to discover an item in the Turnbull collections that inspires you.

For further information about Alexander Turnbull himself, see his biography in Te Ara – The Encyclopedia of NZ, the FoTL website, or the Alexander Turnbull Library website.
