Te Tiriti/Treaty of Waitangi: Re-setting the balance?

Takapuna Library, Wednesday 18 September at 6.00 pm

Since publishing her award-winning history, The Treaty of Waitangi, in 1987 – winner of ‘Book of the Year’ at the Goodman Fielder Wattie Book Awards in 1988 – Dame Claudia Orange has received many awards and honours for her enormous contribution to a wider understanding of our history.

In this talk (adapted from the Friends of Turnbull Library Founder Lecture she delivered in Wellington on 27 June), Dame Claudia will discuss recent research on Te Tiriti, and the impact and influence of the Waitangi Tribunal. She will also comment on recent potential threats to 50 years of advancing Māori/Crown relationships.

This is an extraordinary opportunity to hear Dame Claudia Orange reflecting on her four-decade career of Te Tiriti o Waitangi scholarship, as well as her personal journey leading up to her doctoral thesis.

Join us at Takapuna Library, 9 The Strand, at 6.00pm Wednesday 18 September.

Light refreshments available before Dame Claudia’s talk at 6.30pm. Donations welcome.

Jointly hosted by Friends of Takapuna Library & Friends of the Turnbull Library, this event is free and open to all. Bring a friend, this is a very special event.
